

About the Show

If you have never been to a ZNA sanctioned Koi Show, it is hard to describe these beautiful pieces of living art. You will be enchanted by their movement, color and character.

This is a competition just like any horse or dog competition. The Koi are graded on their body conformation, pattern and several other criteria. Come learn more about these beautiful fish and enjoy this unique, cultural event.

Living Jewels: The Art of Koi

Koi are the national fish of Japan and one of it's treasures. They are symbolic of strength, beauty, and endurance as well as symbols of peace and tranquility.

About the ZNA Club

The Northern Midwest Zen Nippon Airinkai Koi Club is a regional chapter of an international organization based in Beppu, Japan.

Our goal is to spread the hobby of Koi (Nishikigoi) keeping and to improve the knowledge of the husbandry techniques and the appreciation of Nishikigoi as a living art.

The Festival will be held at the beautiful Carmel City Center

1 City Center, Carmel, In. 46032
Located in the center of Carmel half way between Keystone & Meridian and just a few blocks north of 116th St. The show is located 1 block west of Rangeline Rd & 2 blocks south of 126th St. or City Center Drive just south of the Fire Station & the Palladium.
