

About the Show

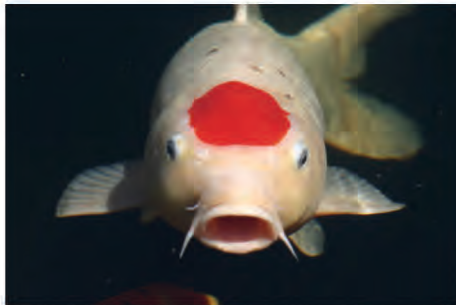

If you have never been to a ZNA sanctioned Koi Show, it is hard to describe these beautiful pieces of living art. You will be enchanted by their movement, color and character.

This is a competition just like any horse or dog competition. The Koi are graded on their body conformation, pattern and several other criteria.

Come learn more about these beautiful fish and enjoy this unique, cultural event.

Living Jewels: The Art of Koi

Koi are the national fish of Japan and one of it's treasures. They are symbolic of strength, beauty, and endurance as well as symbols of peace and tranquility.
